Love, Peace and Happiness

Especially in difficult times, we need to stand together. The most beautiful gift we can give to the world and our fellow human beings in these times is to spread "Love Peace and Happiness".

Such a simple yet important message is embodied in the pastel pink design in a minimalistic way with a small heart in a speech bubble.

Zeit für Schönes!

NAME NATHALIE CSORVASI

ATELIER FORMART - ZEIT FÜR SCHÖNES

@FORMART

Formart was not a classically planned project, but grew out of Nathalie's passion for typography. The typographic motifs, initially designed for private use, were so well received by family and friends that Nathalie and her husband Balazs decided to turn their passion into a profession. With contemporary statements and designs, Formart wants to touch not only people's aesthetic eye, but also their hearts. Together we want to put a smile on people's faces with our products and touch their hearts with the positive statements.

Slow down

Sometimes we need a little reminder in our everyday life to take things slowly and to allow ourselves a time-out every now and then. Enjoying a nice cup of tea, whether at home or on the go, is usually enough to help us calm down. Give yourself and your loved ones a reminder to "slow down and take it easy".

The minimalist design of the series "slow down" with the neutral colors and shapes spreads serenity and is an eye-catcher at the same time.

"Vacation? Cancelled!"

"Free time? Couch time and munching..."

The last few months, almost even the last year, has thrown a wrench in many people's plans and desires. In hard times like these, one thing is especially important - don't let it get you down and think about the time after the pandemic!

Instead of focusing too much on the negative, please don't forget to dream and think about the time after the crisis!

"Vacation? I'm planning something big!"

The last year has put us all to the test. All the things that normally sweetened our everyday life were suddenly not or only partially possible. With our statement "Enjoy the little things", we want to move away from negative and back to positive thinking! Where the big joys are missing, we direct our focus on the small joys in life - because that's what matters!

Queen of chaos

With my word creations and designs I have dedicated myself completely to the everyday attentiveness. My sayings and lettering motifs often make the viewer change his perspective and look at things anew. This creates an awareness for and in the here and now. I find this „being aware of oneself“ incredibly important and would like to inspire others to do the same.

I am inspired by people who dare to question norms and break with common conventions such as Lou Andreas Salome, Frida Kahlo or Vera F. Birkenbihl. Everything around me can be an inspiration, whether patterns of curtains, the colourful display in the vegetable shop, music, conversations with friends...

The result is this little sexy everyday companion, which also fits perfectly to our FORMART-collection. With two iron-hard clamps the box has its lid firmly in place and even soups, yoghurt and other liquid foods will keep you from ruining your day.
